Died

McMILLEN.—At her home near Ankneytown, Ohio, January 7, 1901, Metta McMillen, aged 15 years, 3 months and 10 days. Funeral services in the Ankneytown church conducted by the writer. May God bless the sorrowing parents and friends.
J. L. KIMMEL.

MOORE.—Passed peacefully to her rest, Mary E. Moore, on Sunday, January 13, 1901, in her 85th year. Interment Thursday, January 17.
Pottstown, Pa. MARY J. MOORE.

BRUBAKER.—At her home in Ankneytown, Ohio, Jan. 16, 1901, Elma Enola Brubaker, aged 7 years, 8 months and 16 days. She was a very bright child and chose her funeral text found in Psalm 31:5. "Thou hast redeemed me." May God comfort the bereaved parents and friends. Funeral services by the writer.
J. L. KIMMEL.

FENNEL.—Joseph Fennel, Jan. 5, 1901, aged 64 years, 1 month and 10 days. The funeral was held on Jan. 8, at Brighton Chapel, where a large number of friends and relatives met to pay their last respects to this worthy man. Services were conducted by the writer.
L. O. HUBBARD.

MYERS.—Tuesday morning just as the new year was being ushered in, at his home in Buena Vista, Va., David Myers. He had been a member of the Brethren church for several years. At the time of his death he was 84 years old. A faithful and devoted companion and one daughter are left to mourn his departure.
J. W. PURSLEY.

HEADRICK.—Joseph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Headrick at their home in Conemaugh, Pa., Nov. 7, 1900, aged 10 months and 18 days. Interment in Headrick's cemetery. Little Joe was greatly loved by his parents and friends. He was just coming into that age when children are interesting, thus making it hard to give him up. Thus another flower was nipped in the bud. But he is gone to the land of eternal flowers. The bereaved have the deep sympathy of many friends. Funeral services were conducted by the writer.
J. F. KOONTZ.

GARST.—Fannie Garst, four miles south-east of Jasper, Mo., at her home, January 4, 1901, aged 57 years, 3 months and 2 days. She united with the German Baptist church when she was 16 years old. At the time of the separation she cast her lot with the Brethren church, lived a Christian life until death relieved her of her suffering. Funeral discourse by elder Wm. Harvey of the German Baptist church.
D. W. GARST.

HECKMAN.—Jan. 21, 1901, Hannah Teeter Heckman. She was born April 24, 1842, in Noble Co., Ind., and was married to K. Heckman, Oct.

8, 1857, in Elkhart Co., Ind., where they lived until 1871, when they moved to Cornell, Ill., and in 1884 they moved to Kansas where they have resided ever since. She was the mother of eight children, five of whom survive her and with their father feel sorely bereft. She united with the German Baptist Brethren church about 1868, and lived a consistent Christian life. About 1886 she united with the Progressive Brethren church in which she was a faithful member until her death. She passed away resigned and happy in Jesus altho suffering great agony bodily. She was anointed in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. The funeral was conducted by the writer assisted by brother G. M. Throne of the G. B. Brethren at the Maple Grove church, Norton Co., Kans. Mother Heckman knew what the trials of life were and was loved and respected by all who knew her.
O. L. BROWN.

MARTIN.—Susannah Martin, at the home of her daughter Minda Eberly in Williams Co., O., Jan. 4, 1901, aged 82 years, 9 months and 11 days. In 1835 she was united in marriage to John Martin in Wayne Co. She was the mother of eight children of whom three survive to mourn their loss. In 1835 with her husband found Christ as their Savior and united with the German Baptist church. When the German Baptists divided she took her choice with the Brethren where she remained steadfast until death. She was a loving mother, a good neighbor and a devoted Christian. Like the proverb "She opened her mouth with wisdom and in her tongue has been the law of kindness." The sentiment of her heart has ever been "Nearer my God to thee. She set a good example for us to follow inasmuch that she put her trust in the Almighty. Funeral held by Rev. D. M. Rittenhouse at Bethesda church, Sunday, Jan. 6, 1901.
Bethesda, Ohio. ADAM EBERLY.
